

CLEAN ENERGY CONFERENCE

May 20-21, 2024

1000 Islands Harbor Hotel
Clayton, New York

Build a Clean Energy Future for the North Country

We hope you'll join ANCA and partners in scenic Clayton, New York for our 2024 Clean Energy Conference!

This annual gathering convenes stakeholders, community leaders and government agencies who are invested in our region's clean energy future. The networking and learning event is aimed at advancing clean energy opportunities that benefit communities, businesses and residents across the state and utilizing lessons learned in our rural North Country region to meet clean energy goals statewide.

Who Will Be There?

- Clean energy contractors: heat pump, EV and solar panel installers; architects; engineers; weatherization and building performance professionals; grant writers; and more
- Policy and program implementers
- Students and educators
- Advocacy groups: organizations representing the interests of their community or clean energy mission
- Local, regional and state leaders

Save the Date!

Monday-Tuesday, May 20-21, 2024
1000 Islands Harbor Hotel, Clayton, NY
